From the Girls at Vintaj.

We are very excited to once again be surrounded by the romance and beauty of the Manning House Spanish Colonial Mansion. We had an outstanding time last year and are looking forward to this year's To Bead True Blue show in Tucson, AZ. If you're at the show, please stop and say hello.

We've been having fun adding postings to our new Vintaj blog and are in the midst of making it even more interactive. Be sure to subscribe, it's a great tool for keeping up-to-date and seeing what's new.

This month we're introducing 10 NEW items. Be inspired by this hand picked selection of filigree, pendants charms and drops.

Happy Designing!

"I see many of the beautiful Vintaj filigree findings harkening back to a bygone era when fine craftsmanship came at a premium price. Not only are the findings affordable and versatile but the lovely caramel patina is simply gorgeous. Many of the findings can be incorporated into seed beadwork to imbue an influence from the Renaissance, Gothic Revival, Victorian, Art Nouveau, Edwardian and/or Art Deco eras. It was no doubt that I would incorporate Vintaj for three projects in my new book, Bead Romantique."
